THE PERSONALITY BEHIND THE PRESENCE

Meet Nate O. Wilkins

Nate O. Wilkins meets life head-on. Recognized as America's Active & Ageless Man, he is an actor, model, speaker, and on-camera personality bringing experience, energy, and a spirit of reinvention to stage and screen.

A Navy veteran and former parks and recreation administrator, Nate brings more than 30 years of experience developing programs, building partnerships, and serving communities.

As president of The Now Group Inc. Media, he connects storytelling, media, and community. Based in Miami, he sees later life as an invitation to create, contribute, and keep growing.

MORE THAN A ROLE

A life of experience

Before the camera, Nate spent decades bringing people together through public service, partnerships, and community programming.

His background as a Navy veteran, parks and recreation administrator, and mentor informs a professional presence grounded in empathy, dependability, and real-world leadership.

For Nate, experience is not a conclusion. It is a foundation for new work, new connections, and new chapters.
